VIRGINIA HOUSE OF DELEGATES

DISTRICT 13 FACT SHEET

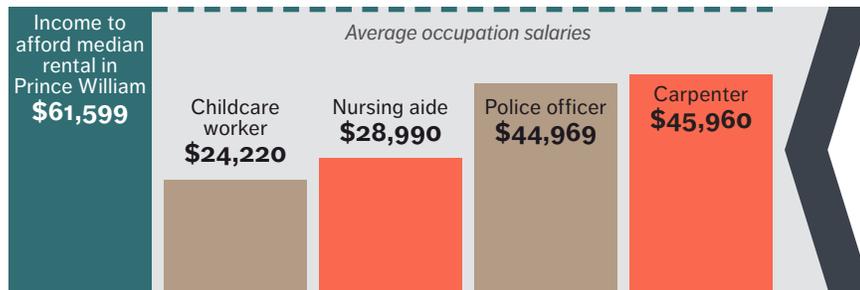

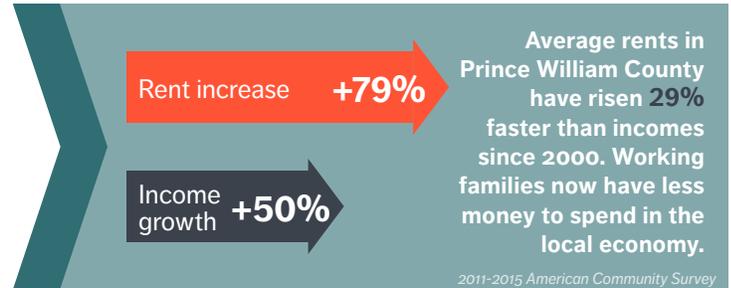

•••• Stable homes build strong communities. ••••

Rents in Northern Virginia are quickly outpacing incomes.

Between 2000 and 2015, the average rent in Prince William County grew by 79%, from $862 to $1,547. At the same time, median household incomes only increased 50%, from $65,754 to $98,657.

The average family in Prince William County spends almost half of their income on housing and commuting costs.

Many families live further away from their jobs to find housing within their means. But these savings are usually canceled out by increased transportation costs. 1 in 4 workers in Prince William spends over 1 hour getting to work.

Creating a wide range of housing opportunities near jobs is an effective strategy to help families save money and reduce traffic congestion, which contributes to 127 million hours of wasted time in the Washington, D.C. metro area each year.
